ALWAYS LEGENDARY

— EXPECT — Excellence

Whether you are an experienced planner or a volunteer organizing your first event, our full service bureau will be with you every step of the way. We will spend the time needed to understand the complexities of your meeting and then work with our local partners to create a customized proposal just for you. Your proposal will include hotel and facility layouts and pricing, menu options, audio-visual information, group activities and more.

We know that once you've visited Springfield, the city will rise to the top of your list. With that in mind, we invite planners to come immerse themselves in all that Springfield has to offer firsthand - to explore, eat, and experience our great city. Our tailored familiarization tours will present the Springfield you want to see based on your group's needs.

After selecting Springfield and the facilities that best meet your requirements, our services department hits the ground running to assist with attendance building support, promotional materials that build excitement, and personalized services to assist your group.

Springfield is located in the heart of the Midwest.

Set your coordinates for the center of Illinois at the junction of Interstates 55 and 72. Your participants can easily drive, fly or hop aboard Amtrak to access Springfield from anywhere.

All it takes is one look at a map to see why Springfield presents a supremely “attendable” location. It is an attractive, interest-filled destination that is close to the geographic center of America. Its moderate climate, central location, affordability, and ease of access will help ensure good attendance for your meeting or event.

Character and Geography

POPULATION

Springfield has big city charm with small town character. We are big enough to have all the services you will need, plus we have preserved enough small town character that is sure to make your attendees feel right at home.

City of Springfield - 113,394
Metro Area - 194,734

CLIMATE

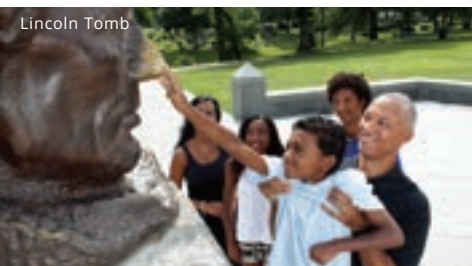

A distinct change of seasons, a pleasant change of pace. Located midway between the Continental Divide and the Atlantic Ocean, the Springfield area offers what is known as a “continental climate”. That means cold, rather dry winters, and warm, humid summers. But if there is one thing that remains a constant, it is that our conditions are constantly changing. As they say here in the Midwest, “If you don’t like the weather, wait a few minutes.”

You can always check current weather conditions on our website or ask us for advice on what to expect and what kind of dress is recommended for the specific time period of your event.

WHERE WORLD-CLASS Medical FLOURISHES

The strong healthcare community in Springfield and Sangamon County is an asset for additional economic development opportunities in the area. Collaboration between the community healthcare partners and the academic medical advancements driving better systems of care creates a compelling environment for growth, education and development.

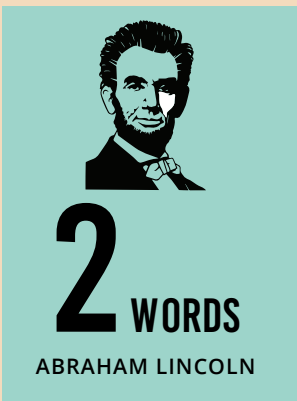

The Mid-Illinois Medical District (MIMD), a $600+ million Capital investment, is a one-square mile designation just north of downtown and the Illinois State Capitol on 640 acres in Springfield. Established in 2003 by an act of the Illinois General Assembly, the MIMD is a vibrant environment that supports patient care, bio-medical research, new medical technologies and advanced medical-related activities.

Additionally, the District is anchored in the heart of central Illinois by four health care institutions including, Springfield Memorial Hospital, HSHS St. John's Hospital, Springfield Clinic and the internationally acclaimed Southern Illinois University School of Medicine.

Medical groups that have hosted their events in Springfield include:

- Illinois State Society of Radiological Technologists
- Illinois Emergency Nurses Association Spring Conference
- Association of Women's Health Obstetrics and Neonatal Nurses Section Meeting

UNIQUE EVENT Venues

Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library and Museum

The Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library and Museum offers unique venues that will make your event truly memorable.

With Lincoln's log cabin on one side and the White House on the other, the museum's main Plaza provides a majestic backdrop for wedding receptions, awards dinners or cocktail parties. Its 4,500 square feet can accommodate an elegant 300-person dinner or reception for up to 450 people. You can even make arrangements for guests to experience the Museum's breathtaking exhibits and theaters.

The library building features both the soaring Lincoln Atrium, an elegant space for a 100-person seated dinner or reception for up to 250 people, and the Lincoln Reception Room, a three-story glass rotunda (inscribed with a quote from the Gettysburg Address!) that accommodates up to 60 people for meals and receptions.

If you need meeting space, our state-of-the-art Multi-Purpose Room seats up to 300 people and offers satellite uplink, tele-conferencing, video conferencing and full broadcast capabilities. It also has a gallery space available for receptions. For small group meetings consider the Governor's Conference Room. It features a large conference table with 20 comfortable chairs and a wall of windows that make a terrific location for your next brainstorming session.

Old State Capitol

The Old State Capitol is a reconstruction of Illinois' fifth statehouse, the first to be located in Springfield. It is here that Lincoln practiced law, served as a legislator and gave his famed House Divided speech on slavery in 1858. The building served as the seat of state government and a center of Illinois political life from 1839-1876.

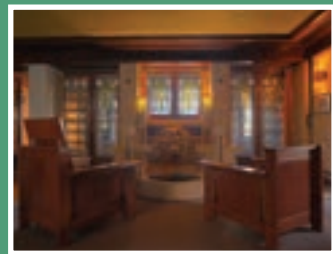

The Old State Capitol is an elegant setting for candlelight receptions. There is something special about this building in the evening - it is easy to transport yourself back in time and imagine what it must have been like for citizens of Springfield in the mid-1800s.

Dana-Thomas House

Perhaps the most complete of all early Frank Lloyd Wright dwellings, it was never significantly altered and has over 100 pieces of original Wright-designed oak furniture, 250 examples of art glass light fixtures and lamps. The barrel-vaulted dining room and gallery/ballroom are two of the most photographed spaces in the history of American architecture.

The Dana-Thomas House, one of the finest examples of Prairie Style architecture designed by Frank Lloyd Wright, is located in the heart of Springfield. Originally built for local socialite and activist Susan Lawrence Dana at the turn of the century, this lavish residence is now open to the public and available for private functions.

Ace Sign Museum

The Ace Sign Co. Museum includes over 85 historic signs from Springfield and Route 66.

The museum features a number of notable signs including a 12' tall 1953 Neon Pepsi Bottle Cap, a sign that once identified the Train Depot where Lincoln gave his farewell speech, and a number of other vintage signs originating from memorable dining establishments & vintage brewing companies. The wooden barreled ceilings bring a modern feel to the space and the open floor plan allows for a flexible event layout.

Hoogland Center for the Arts

This former Masonic Temple underwent a $9 million renovation to completely transform the 80,000 sq. ft. facility into The Hoogland Center, one of the most unique and elegant spaces in the Springfield area.

Located in the heart of historic downtown, The Hoogland Center for the Arts is a state-of-the-art facility that hosts events throughout the year from business meetings to black-tie affairs. Home to 20 resident organizations, the Hoogland has facility space for small board meetings in their Social Room all the way up to seating 160 for dinner. In addition, they have an on-site caterer that can prepare everything from a simple continental breakfast to a world-class dinner with full bar service, making the Hoogland an ideal location for presentations, cocktail parties or wedding receptions.

Washington Park and Thomas Rees Memorial Carillon

This historic 150-acre park also features hiking trails, playgrounds and a band pavilion. Washington Park Botanical Garden is known for its seasoned displays and rose garden.

Host your event under towering trees, amidst a botanical garden or in the shadow of a carillon bell tower. Honor your attendees with a private carillon bell concert. Picnic in an enclosed historic pavilion or beside a quiet lagoon.

Edwin Watts Southwind Park and Erin's Pavilion

This historic 150-acre park also features hiking trails, playgrounds and a band pavilion. Washington Park Botanical Garden is known for its seasoned displays and rose garden.

Host your event under towering trees, amidst a botanical garden or in the shadow of a carillon bell tower. Honor your attendees with a private carillon bell concert. Picnic in an enclosed historic pavilion or beside a quiet lagoon.

Motorheads Bar, Grill, Museum & Entertainment Complex

Treat your attendees to an amazing experience at this unique, fun and exciting venue!

Fans of vintage gas station signs, Route 66 memorabilia, or classic cars, will love this outing! Experience iconic neon signs, several items from Shea's Gas Station Museum, the Sunrise Donut sign, and don't forget to snap some group pics with the "Worlds Largest Route 66 Sign".

Springfield Visitors Center

The Springfield Visitors Center is located inside the Historic Lincoln-Herndon Law Office and Tinsley Dry Goods building. In this building, you will also find an installation of Lincoln’s Law Office and Springfield’s regional Post Office that was located at this site from 1841-1849.
